Dear Sister Ross:

You are hereby called to be a missionary of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to labor in the Brazilian Mission.

Your presiding officers have recommended you as one worthy to render assistance to the Priesthood in the proclamation of the holy Gospel. As a missionary of the Church, it will be your duty to live righteously, to keep the commandments of the Lord, to increase your testimony of the divinity of the Restored Gospel of Jesus Christ, to be an exemplar in your life of all the Christian virtues, and so to conduct yourself as a devoted handmaid of the Lord that you may be an effective advocate and messenger of the Truth. We repose in you our confidence and extend to you our prayers that the Lord will help you thus to meet your responsibilities.

The Lord will reward the goodness of your life, and greater blessings and more happiness than you have yet experienced await you as you serve Him humbly and prayerfully in this labor of love among His children.

We ask that you please send your written acceptance promptly, endorsed by your presiding officer in the ward or branch where you live.

Sincerely yours,

(President)

Dear Sister Ross:

We have been advised by the First Presidency of your call to serve in the Brazilian Mission. We commend you and look forward to meeting you upon your arrival at Mission Headquarters in Sao Paulo.

To assist you in your preparations and travel, we make the following suggestions and recommendations:

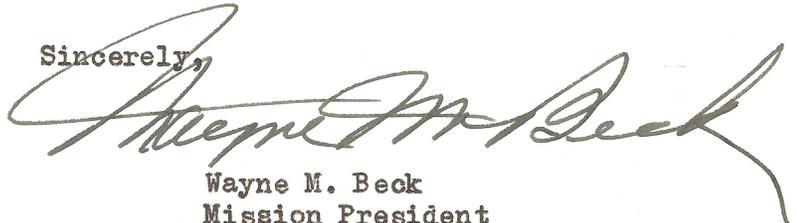

1. Study carefully the list of suggested items and general instructions furnished you by the First Presidency. It will answer most of your questions.
2. We recommend that you bring the book Brazilian Portuguese Grammar by Maria de Lourdes Sá Pereira. This book may be obtained at the Deseret Book Store.
3. Determine the status of your personal or family medical insurance if you have any. Although this matter is optional, most of these programs have no value outside the United States unless a special rider is arranged before you leave. In the event that you need medical care during your mission, such an arrangement could assist in the expense. We do not urge you to take out a new policy.
4. We request that you send four passport photos of yourself as soon as possible. We will be happy to answer any questions you may have. You should allow three weeks for an answer.

You will want to take full advantage of the program of the Language Training Mission. We expect that a few weeks after your arrival here you will have overcome much of the "language barrier" and will be able to devote yourself fully to the fascinating and uniquely rewarding experience of teaching the Gospel to a truly prepared people. In addition to the language, basic information on the history, geography and culture of Brazil will be of value to you.

You can expect to be met at the airport in São Paulo by myself or my representative and assisted through customs and conducted to the Mission Home. May the Lord bless you with the desire to learn more than you have ever learned before. We pray that you will have a pleasant journey.

Boa Viagem.

Sincerely,

Wayne M. Beck

January 25, 1966

Dear Sister Ross:

The members of the Brazilian Zone take great pleasure in welcoming you to the Language Training Mission. It is really a wonderful opportunity to be here. You will find the Training Mission to be a regularly organized mission of the Church, so please recognize the fact that this is not college life. Though you may not baptize anyone here, you will be working for our Father in Heaven and sharpening your tools for the harvest.

You will grow in many ways here. We hope you will open your mind and heart to receive the things awaiting you, and such will be the case if you only seek them. We know you will bring a great spirit with you and an overabundance of enthusiasm. If you keep this attitude and spirit, you will be a success.

As you know, you will study Portuguese here in preparation for preaching the Gospel in Brazil. You will be placed in the District of BANDEIRANTES while you are here. Some may have higher capacities than others, but with the God-given gift of tongues, all will learn very rapidly.

Any missionary here will be more than glad to help you with any difficulty that you may encounter. We are all working in the Church together until we come to a unity of the faith. Helping each other and sharing ideas is one way to become more united. After your third day here, you will be expected to speak only "português," so be prepared to come and learn rapidly.

Please come with the idea in mind that you are in the mission field, because you are. Your friends, relatives and all others concerned should consider you as inaccessible as if you were already in Brazil. You will function much better if you set your eye on the road ahead and dedicate yourself completely to the work for the next two and one-fourth years. Never turn back, because when you do, you cannot plow a straight furrow.

We will be looking forward to meeting you this coming Sunday.

Dear Sister:

This is to advise you of the arrival of Sister Annette Marie Ross in the Brazilian Mission on April 26, 1966 at 8:30 P.M. by Varig Airlines from Los Angeles. He arrived in good health and excellent spirits and has already completed the orientation program and received her first assignment, the Santo Amaro Branch in the city of São Paulo, São Paulo state.

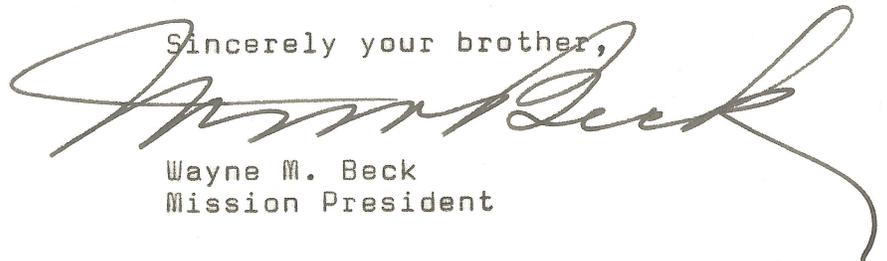

Brazil is a modern country with every necessary commodity for the reasonable comfort of the missionaries. We trust you will feel at ease concerning the life of your missionary daughter. You may be assured we will do all we can for her well-being and happiness in the mission field.

We are grateful to you for Sister Ross, and we suggest a weekly correspondence with her in care of Caixa Postal 862, São Paulo, S.P., Brazil. Regular letters will assist in combating any adjustment problem or homesickness which may occur. Cheerful family news full of encouragement and with the positive spirit toward missionary work will exert a great influence for good on your missionary.

We discourage you from sending any type of package to your daughter, even at Christmastime. Many packages are lost, and those that get through are difficult and expensive to get out of customs. If you insist on sending a package, it must be addressed to the Brazilian Mission in care of me.

I hope you will feel free to write us about any questions or problems.

Sincerely your brother,

Wayne M. Beck

Dear Sister Ross,

I'm afraid you will always be "Sister Ross" to me but it will be a little awkward after you are married, won't it?

I admit I don't like goodbyes but I am not such a coward that I deliberately avoided telling you goodbye. In fact I felt pretty sick about your send-off. I have planned all along to go to the airport to take you and see you safely away and when President Hicken said at dinner that he didn't think it was wise for us to go this time, I certainly wanted to give you a big hug here and let you know how very much we have enjoyed having you in our mission family and how we wish you a very, very choice and happy future. I was in the kitchen trying to get a little supper for Elder Johns who was sick, and Elder Stevens who had been overlooked for dinner, not thinking to look at my watch, when Lindy came out with tears in her eyes and stated that Sister Ross just left. I couldn't believe it and tore out to the front office but Elder Brinkerhoff assured me that you had really gone. I hope that you will forgive me and know that we love you, we miss you, and we are looking forward to your visit before long.

Everyone felt your absence on Monday. Please enjoy that beautiful spring for all of us--it is sunny here in São Paulo now, but extremely cold. Today feels as cold as any day I have felt here. I am sitting with fur-lined boots and car coat--the cold accounts for some of the type errors and my other excuse is that I caught President's bug (he had to come home from Santos Saturday night and miss district conference there) and I think I am about on the verge of going to bed with it.

I'm sure you will be seeing Sister Turnbow and Elder Fletcher. Please give them and any others you see your very best regards and love.

Love,

Sister Hicken

Dear Annette,

This greeting certainly seems strange but I started one letter addressed to Sister Ross and realized that was not correct. Then I thought of just starting "Hi" and that hardly seemed adequate so I might as well get used to your name--it is such a lovely one, too. Speaking of names, I don't know how to address the envelope because as often as I have heard you speak of Allan, if I have heard his last name I don't remember it--oh yes, I put your invitation down on the bulletin board so I can look it up after all.

It is hard to realize that you are now a married woman but again, we want to express our best wishes and our prayers that you and Allan will be very, very happy--and I know that you already are and that this happiness will increase over your years together. It was a joy to hear from you. It all sounds so fun and exciting and I felt honored that you took time to write to us in the midst of all your activities, and let us share some of your excitement.

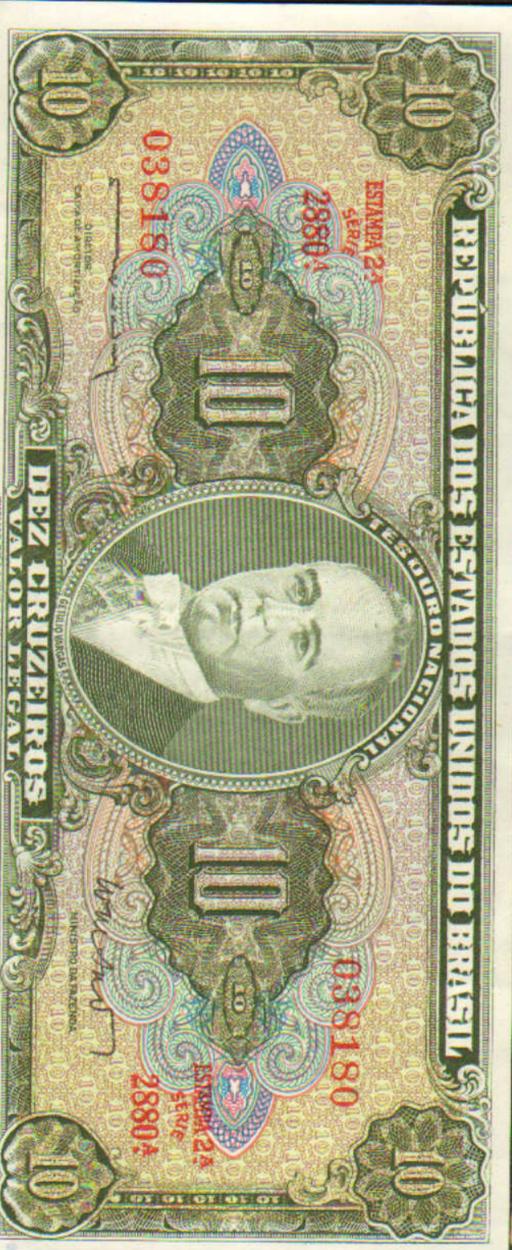

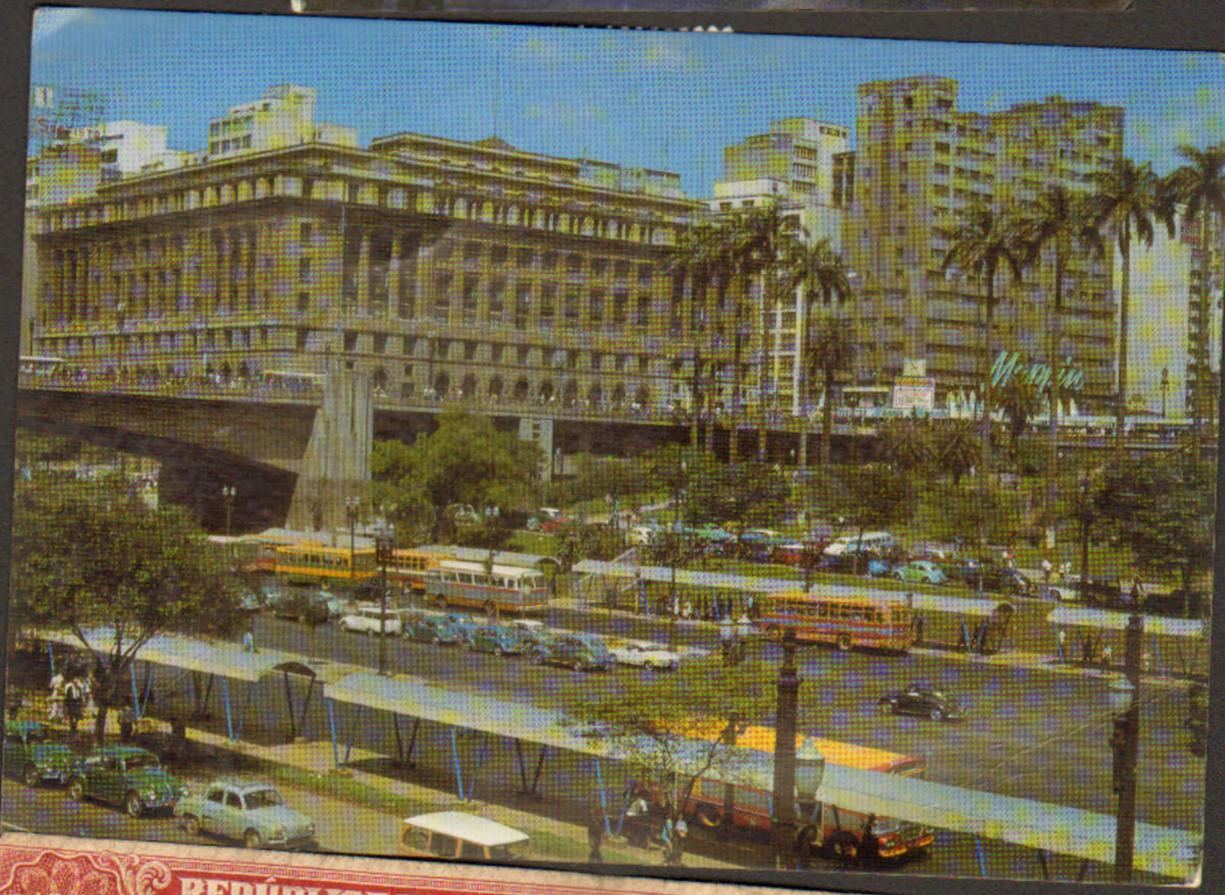

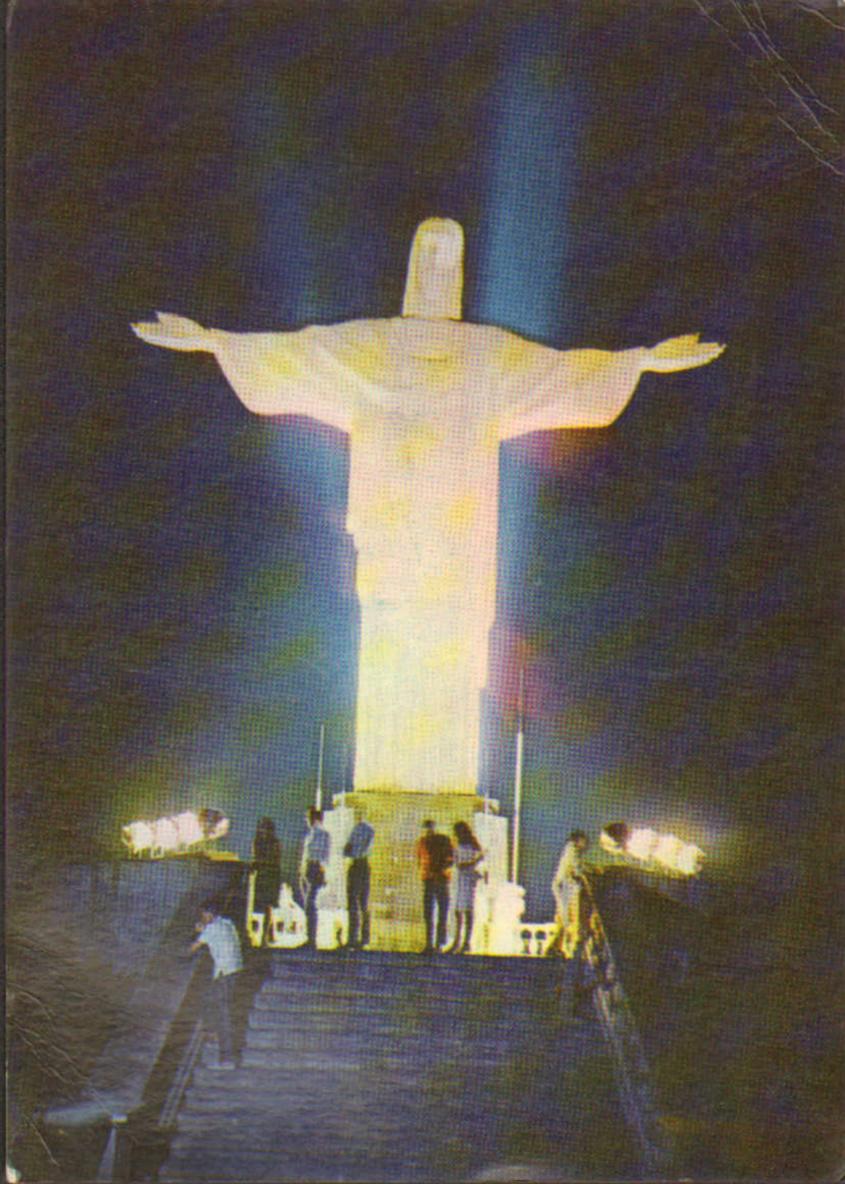

Things are becoming more busy and more exciting all the time here. This last weekend we went to Curitiba for the District conference there at which time the State of Paraná was incorporated into our mission, along with 52 new missionaries. I thought our mission was big before! This was an exciting time for us and now we are busy and hoping for a stake there and another one in São Paulo in the very near future. Preparing for these hoped for events will keep President mighty busy, along with his regular duties in this huge mission, but he is doing a tremendous job and I am convinced that he is one of the greatest mission presidents in the church--I know I'm prejudiced but I still think it is true.

We continue to feel a great outpouring of the spirit of the Lord here in our mission and we are grateful to be a part of all this.

Please give our regards to Allan and to any of our mission family you may happen to see. I am writing to Sister Turnbow and Elder Fletcher today so I hope they receive it all right. We enjoyed the news about Elders Evans, Burton, Gibbons, etc. You might be interested to know that Elder Tanner left for home yesterday and Elder Taylor is the new Assistant.

Love and very best wishes,

Sister Hickman
